

Contents

Foreword	9
Chapter 1 The Italian agro-food system
1.1. Agriculture on the international economic scene	11
1.2. Trends in Italian agriculture	13
1.3. Agro-food trade	15
1.4. Farm enterprises	17
1.5. The food industry	19
1.6. The economic organisation of producers	21
1.7. Food retailing and consumption	24
Chapter 2 Factors of production in agriculture
2.1. The land market	27
2.2. Investment and credit	30
2.3. Inputs	31
2.4. Irrigation water	33
2.5. Employment	35
2.6. Knowledge systems in agriculture	37
Chapter 3 Public policy in agriculture
3.1. Community policy: the First Pillar	41
3.2. Community policy: the Second Pillar	43
3.3. National policy	45
3.4. Regional policies	47
3.5. Fiscal policy	48
3.6. The framework of responsibilities and consolidation of public expenditure	49

Chapter 4 Multifunctionality, environment and territory

- |                                                                      |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 4.1. The management of natural resources and sustainable agriculture | 51 |
| 4.2. The diversification of agriculture                              | 56 |
| 4.3. Quality and food safety                                         | 58 |

Chapter 5 Production in agriculture, forestry and fishing

- |                                           |    |
|-------------------------------------------|----|
| 5.1. Cereals, industrial crops and forage | 63 |
| 5.2. Flowers, fruit and vegetables        | 67 |
| 5.3. Grapes and olives                    | 69 |
| 5.4. Animal husbandry                     | 72 |
| 5.5. Milk and dairy products              | 75 |
| 5.6. Fish products                        | 77 |
| 5.7. Forestry                             | 78 |

Tables and figures 81